Eve Aronoff, consulting chef and visionary
An underground tapestry of Indian and French influences dessous is the vision of longtime friends Scott Burk and Jay Mullick alongside another dear friend and consulting chef, Eve Aronoff. Eve laid the foundation of dessous with her culinary training in Paris and longtime love of Latin culture and cuisine. She has creatively woven in Scott and Jay’s backgrounds growing up with American country cooking and Indian cuisine and traditions, respectively.

As Scott and Jay traveled the world together over the years, they developed a deep friendship over their passion for food and wine, seeking restaurants of renown to the most informal and obscure hidden gems. They developed a shared vision of creating a distinctive, world class restaurant whose values would revolve around guests sharing delicious food in a warm and convivial setting, free of any pretense.

Together with Eve, they have created this special place in dessous, where Indian influences and traditions are fused with a foundation of French philosophy and technique. Combining a love of big flavors, texture and contrast the dishes are complex, yet harmonious.

dessous is a very personal restaurant - the menu is inspired, full of flavor and warmth that carries through every aspect of the restaurant. Guests are invited in to enjoy and be cared for sincerely.
